

Antonio Miguel JALLER RAAD

Dr. Antonio Miguel Jaller Raad is an eminent dermatologist with an illustrious career spanning more than 46 years in the field of medicine, dedicating 42 years to dermatology specialization and university teaching at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels in Colombia.

His work has been crucial in the founding and development of multiple regional and national societies such as the Atlantic Dermatological Association (ASODERMA) and Dermocaribe, among other prestigious dermatological societies.

His dedication and excellence in clinical research have earned him recognition as an honorary member of the Colombian Society of Dermatology.

Additionally, he has extensively contributed to the medical literature with publications that have redefined clinical practices.

Soon, he will assume the position of vice president at the 2024 CILAD Congress in Cartagena, consolidating his status as a leading authority in dermatology in Latin America.