Alex GINZBURG

Alex Ginzburg was born in Argentina and is graduated of the University of La Plata School of Medicine in Argentina. In 1978 Dr Ginzburg immigrated to Israel where he completed his specialization in dermatology in 1987 at the University of Tel Aviv, Israel. Dr. Ginzburg performs many different cosmetics surgery procedures but hair restoration surgeries remain one of his favorite operations, which doing since 1991.

Studied the basics of hair restoration in the United States with Dr.Gary Monheit and Dr. Daniel Russo in Birmingham, Alabama. This was followed by further study with Dr. Pierre Bouhana and Dr. Patrik Rabineau in Paris and Dr. Walter Unger in Toronto.

He has performed over 12000 hair transplants in Israel. Dr Ginzburg is an active participant in many international meetings of hair transplant and dermatologic surgery.

Founder and past president of the Israel society for dermatologic surgery. Founder of the European Society of Mohs Surgery. Board of Directors of the and is one of the pioneers in the technique of FUE (since 2001).International Society for Dermatologic Surgery (1998 - 2003).

Dr Ginzburg performed hair transplant in different countries like Brasil, Nepal, India, Rumania, USA, Panama, Spain, Germany, France, Turquia, Dominican Republic. From 2009 to 2015 was member of the Board Directors of the International Society of Hair Restoration Surgery. Today is director of the Hair and Hair Transplant Unit, Ginzburg Clinic in Israel. Trained more than 130 doctors in hair transplant around the world,