

Vicente TORRES LOZADA

Graduated from national university of Mexico, trained in internal medicine at the Juarez hospital in Mexico city.

Graduated in dermatology from Pascua dermatologic center in Mexico city.

Fellow and visiting professor in the department of dermatology Massachusetts General Hospital, head of the dermatology service at the Juarez Hospital until 2018, former president of the Mexican Society of Dermatology, editor-in-chief of the book Practical Ibero-Latin American Dermatology, founding member of the global alliance to improve therapeutic results in acne, member of multiple national and international dermatological societies.

Expert in acne and rosacea. Other interest areas are dermocosmetics and cutaneous virology.

Member of the American Society for Acne and Rosacea.