

Sergio VAÑO GALVAN

Dr. Sergio Vaño Galván is a dermatologist focused on hair disorders, director of the Hair Disorders Unit of the Ramón y Cajal University Hospital and the Hair Disorders and Hair Transplant Unit of Pedro Jaén Group Clinic, in Madrid. He is the Secretary General of the Spanish Society of Dermatology (AEDV).

He is the Secretary General of the European Hair Research Society and member of the American Hair Research Society. He is Director of the International Master's Degree in Hair Disorders and Hair Transplantation at the University of Alcalá.

Dr. Vaño-Galván leads an active research group in the study of different forms of alopecia (#TricoHRC). Dr. Vaño-Galván has published more than 290 scientific articles in Pubmed (h-index of 31) and he is a regular guest speaker in international congresses of hair research.